as a part of

70TH ANNIVERSARY OF CONSTITUTIONAL DAY- YEAR LONG CELEBRATION

NATIONAL LAW UNIVERSITY ODISHA

The National Law University Odisha (NLUO) is a vibrant addition to India's national law universities. Within the short span, NLUO has made its mark as a university engaged in teaching and research in law. Faculty research output has always been of a very high standard, yielding among others several top-tier international publications. The student community's engagement with co-curricular activities has yielded remarkable results, including consistently high performances in moot court competitions and active participation in prestigious national and international conferences and seminars. The liberal yet demanding academic culture coupled with the friendly environment have ensured that students are able to harness their full potential and contribute in the area of their choice.

The University has received recognition from the University Grants Commission (UGC) under Section 12(b) of the UGC Act 1956, and has been receiving grants under the XIIth Plan. Its degrees offered are recognized by the Bar Council of India. It is also an associate member of the UGC-INFLIBNET, and a participant in the National Knowledge Network under the Ministry of Information Technology and Communication, Government of India.

National Law University Odisha is the state coordinator for Odisha for the 70th Constitutional Day-Yearlong Celebration.

KARTAVYA- CELEBRATING 70TH CONSTITUTIONAL DAY YEAR LONG

To mark the anniversary of the adoption of India's Constitution on November 26, 1949, in 2015 the Government decided to observe 26th November as 'Constitution Day' or 'Samvidhan Diwas'. On this day in 1949, the Indian Constitution was adopted which came into force on January 26, 1950 marking the beginning of a new era in the history of India.

The 'Constitution Day' will be a part of year-long nationwide celebrations starting from 26th November, 2019 during which number of activities with special emphasis on Fundamental Duties have been planned by UGC throughout the year with active participation of HEIs.

FUNDAMENTAL DUTIES

The Swaran Singh Committee appointed by the Government for a review of the Indian Constitution, in its report submitted in 1976 recommended that certain Fundamental Duties and obligations which every citizen owed the nation should be included in the Constitution.

Article 51 'A', contained in Part IV A of the Constitution deals with Fundamental Duties. These enjoin upon a citizen among other things, to abide by the Constitution, to cherish and follow noble ideals, which inspired India's struggle for freedom, to defend the country and render national service when called upon to do so, and to promote harmony and spirit of common brotherhood transcending religious, linguistic and regional or sectional diversities. Fundamental Duties of the citizens have been enumerated as follows:

- a. to abide by the Constitution and respect its ideals and institutions, the National Flag and the National Anthem;
- b. to cherish and follow the noble ideals which inspired our national struggle for freedom;
- c. to uphold and protect the sovereignty, unity and integrity of India;
- d. to defend the country and render national service when called upon to do so;
- e. to promote harmony and the spirit of common brotherhood amongst all the people of India transcending religious, linguistic and regional or sectional diversities; to renounce practices derogatory to the dignity of women;
- f. to value and preserve the rich heritage of our composite culture;
- g. to protect and improve the natural environment including forests, lakes, rivers and wild life, and to have compassion for living creatures;
- h. to develop the scientific temper, humanism and the spirit of inquiry and reform;
- i. to safeguard public property and to abjure violence;
- j. to strive towards excellence in all spheres of individual and collective activity so that the nation constantly rises to higher levels of endeavor and achievement;
- k. who is a parent or guardian to provide opportunities for education to his child or, as the case may be, ward between the age of six and fourteen years.
